Help Lucy Find More Friends!

Won't you help me make new friends? Pretty please? Ask your parents for help, then cut me out and put me in an envelope and send me to a friend of family member you know who lives far away. Write them a note asking them to take a picture with me before they send me off to meet some of their own friends or family members. The pictures can be uploaded to my very own Facebook page: www.facebook.com/belucysfriend
